CHECK-IN: Check with the members of your group to see how they are doing. Did you do the DIY last week and how did it go?

BIG IDEA: The Colors of Christmas: GOLD - The wise men were “wise” because they were seekers of, worshipers of, and givers to Jesus.

ASK:

The wise men were seeking Jesus.

READ: Matthew 2:1b-2a, 6:33

ASK: How are you spending your life? What would you say you are currently seeking more than anything/anyone else? What about your life would have to change in order for Jesus to become your primary pursuit?

The wise men were worshipers of Jesus.

READ: Matthew 2:2, 11

ASK: Would you say your heart is currently warm or cold towards God? What or who tend to steal your affections away from Him? What needs to change in order for you to worship Jesus with every aspect of your life?

The wise men were givers to Jesus.

READ: Matthew 2:11b, Mark 10:21

ASK: Consider all God has given to you. Has his love compelled you to be generous to others? Has His love resulted in the joyful giving of your time and money? In what ways do you tend to struggle with giving? How might God want to glorify Himself through this part of your life?

DIY: RSVP for Christmas at Hope and invite someone to join us in person or online (christmasathope.net).
